AIMS and OBJECTIVES of EDF as defined in EDF Statutes

Article 3 – Purpose

The Association's mission is to ensure disabled people full access to fundamental and human rights through their active involvement in policy development and implementation in Europe.

The objective is to achieve equalisation of opportunities for all women and men with disabilities through influencing the work of all the European institutions, in co-operation with the Social and Civil Partners, institutions and agencies of the EU and EEA, as well as with other European and international organisations and agencies, in accordance with the principle of non-discrimination, and in compliance with EDF's mission statement expressed in the first paragraph of the current article.

This will be achieved through promoting and systematic monitoring of legislative proposals and strategic campaign work to influence policy and practice throughout Europe.

The activities which the Association will undertake to obtain these objectives include:

- Contacts with the relevant institutions and consultative bodies of the EU
- Preparing and disseminating of position papers, periodic information bulletins and other written contributions
- Organisation of conferences and seminars and/or participation in these
- Cooperation and dialogue with other stakeholders, as NGOs, media, trade unions and employers.

All these activities will be undertaken by the Association on the basis of thorough consultation with its members.

The Association shall also defend the interests of its member organisations and of their members' organisations when called upon by them to do so at European level and through its member organisations at national level.

SECTION 4 – REASONS FOR APPLYING

Please state briefly why you are applying to EDF membership and how your organisation would like to contribute to EDF activities and campaigns.

CDPD being an associate member of EDF could mutually benefit from the experience/expertise of EDF member organizations in promoting the rights of persons with disabilities. This will allow us to be more efficient in what we propose to do for the benefit of people with disabilities in the Republic of Moldova. With the support of EDF, the CDPD would become visible on the European level and could influence the quality of EU policies regarding the Republic of Moldova in terms of ensuring the realization of the rights of persons with disabilities. It is an honor for CDPD to be part of the EDF family. CDPD as an associate member of EDF being an organization of people with disabilities at the national level could contribute to the successful implementation of the EDF project on the territory of the Republic of Moldova. CDPD is an organization of persons with disabilities that is a leader in the field of promotion, defense and monitoring of the rights of persons with disabilities and this leadership is recognized by both public authorities and civil society organizations CSOs including by persons with disabilities.
